Public Reports

WGEA publishes the Public Report, except personal information in whole, or part on the Data Explorer and uses its contents in whole or part for other purposes in electronic or other formats.

Two documents make up your Public Report and can be generated and downloaded after preparing your submission for lodgement:

- Public Report – Questionnaire
- Public Report – Employee Data Tables

The Public Report must be:

- Given to your CEO or equivalent for review, approval and sign off before lodgement.
- Shared in accordance with the Notification and Access requirements under the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012 (the Act).

Report contacts will be asked to declare in the Portal that all relevant CEO or equivalents have signed the public report.

Detailed information on the requirements to share the public report with your employees, members or shareholders can be found within the online Reporting Guide on Notification and Access requirements.

Gender Equality Standards

If there is a single entity employing 500 or more employees, they must have a policy or strategy in place against each of the six Gender Equality Indicators. More information can be found within the online reporting guide on Gender Equality Standards.

Workplace Overview

Policies & Strategies

Employer policies or strategies on workplace gender equality and the composition of the workforce can be powerful levers for making progress and change. Policies or strategies are most effective when backed up by evidence-informed action plans to address areas of imbalance and inequality. Similarly, targets are achievable, time-framed goals that create mechanisms for accountability and are effective when combined with dedicated actions to help achieve them.

1.1 Do you have formal policies and/or formal strategies in place that support gender equality in the workplace?

Yes

Policy; Strategy

1.1a Do the formal policies and/or formal strategies include any of the following?

Recruitment; Retention; Performance management processes; Training and development

1.2 Do you have a formal policy and/or formal strategy on diversity and inclusion in your organisation?

Yes

Policy; Strategy

1.2a Do the formal policies and/or formal strategies include any of the following?

Gender identity; Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander background; Cultural and/or language background; Disability and/or accessibility; Age; Other

Provide details: Socio-economic background, religious beliefs, marital or family status, sexual orientation

1.3 Does your organisation have any targets to address gender equality in your workplace?

Yes

Reduce the organisation-wide gender pay gap; Increase the number of women in management positions; Increase the number of men taking parental leave; To have a gender balanced governing body (at least 40% men and 40% women)

1.4 If your organisation would like to provide additional information relating to your gender equality policies and strategies, please do so below.

WGEA reporting assumes that our Group can dictate to partially owned businesses how they implement gender equality objectives and effect change. The holding company, AUB Group Limited, cannot do this – the organisation is set up to allow the businesses it partially owns to run themselves. AUB Group Limited purchases shares (on average ~65%) in insurance intermediaries across Australia. The proprietors of the businesses are responsible for the day-to-day management of the business. Each business is a separate unit, and typically there is no direct career progression between the individual businesses or to the Holding Company.

Factors Creating Distortions in Reporting

1. AUB only reports on >50% owned businesses. In the questionnaire section if the answer is “no” for one business, then the answer is “no” across the board even if all other businesses were a “yes”.
2. No centralised functions – AUB does not have human resources or payroll functions covering the entire Group. Workplace profile information and gender policies are managed individually at each of the businesses.
3. No monitoring of gender equality policies – AUB’s network of businesses is not required to adopt template policies, and AUB cannot monitor all the businesses as it does not have this power. The non AUB shareholders drive the businesses and their employee and workplace strategies, including gender equality. Any gender and human resources policies and strategies made at the AUB Group Limited level may not always be adopted at the Partner level.
4. Gender Composition of subsidiary Boards – The gender composition of CEO roles and Board Member positions in each business is determined by shareholding. The setting of any gender composition targets is ineffective.

Workplace Overview

Governing Bodies

Gender balance on governing bodies or Boards is good for business. It contributes to workplace gender equality outcomes and improved company performance more broadly. Measures to support gender balance in the governing body include analysing the gender representation of chairs and other members, considering gender in the selection of Board members, and taking action to drive change through term limits, gender equality targets and policies.

Action on Gender Equality

Gender Pay Gaps

The gender pay gap is the difference in average or median earnings between women and men. It is a measure of how we value the contribution of women and men in the workforce. The gender pay gap is not to be confused with women and men being paid the same for the same, or comparable, job – this is equal pay. Equal pay for equal work is a legal requirement in Australia. However, illegal instances of unequal pay can still be one of the many drivers of the gender pay gap. Closing the gender pay gap is important for Australia's economic future and reflects our aspiration to be an equal and fair society for all.

Employee Support for Parents and Carers

Paid Parental Leave

Parental leave policies are designed to support and protect working parents around the time of childbirth or adoption of a child and when children are young. Some employers offer universally available parental leave policies, offering equal parental leave for all parents, others offer with a distinction between 'primary' and 'secondary' carers. It's important that it's a policy that's available to all parents, irrespective of gender, recognising the equally important role of all parents in caregiving. Gender equal policies help to de-gender the ideal worker and carer norms, which pervade the workplace and reduce opportunities for women to remain in, or re-enter the workforce.

What next?

The contact nominated for the submission of this report must complete the declaration and consent process in the WGEA Portal. The Agency does not require physical evidence of the CEO's signature.

To comply with the notification and access requirements, your organisation/s must:

- + inform your employees and members or shareholders that you have lodged its report with the Agency and advise how the public data may be accessed
- + provide access to the public data to employees and members or shareholders
- + inform employee organisations with members in your workplace that the report has been lodged
- + inform your employees and those employee organisations with members in your workplace of the opportunity to comment on the report to the employer or the Agency.

Please see our reporting guide for more information on the notification and access requirements.
